

OCTOBER Monthly Numerology Report 2017

Welcome!

Thank you for visiting me, and our website. First of all, if you're new to Numerology, I'd like to take a minute and explain what it involves. Numerology consists of the study of numbers, and the energy that's behind each number. Many ancient cultures believed in numerology and it's a study that's been around for thousands of years. We're here to take the energy and meanings behind each number and lay them out for you in an easy to follow and easy to understand format.

Numerology allows us to use information that was learned thousands of years ago about the energy in numbers and use that information to apply to everything in the world around us. Everything in the world around us is made from energy and if you know the energies involved you'll be able to understand everything a little bit better. Numerology translates that energy into a way to understand unexplainable things.

Numerology does not tell you what to do to have the perfect life; it explains to you what energies are represented in the numbers in the world around you, in the things around you. If you understand this information, you can then apply it and use guidelines to apply this knowledge to particular situations in your life.

For example, you probably behave differently in December than you do in October. Some of this certainly has to do with things like weather limitations or seasonal changes, and some just has to do with holidays that are celebrated in these times. You probably wouldn't wear a sweater and carry around mistletoe in October, for example. But, have you ever stopped to consider that the different vibe or feelings in each of these months also has something to do with the energy in each month or week of the year? Each day has it's own energy, each date has it's own meaning.

You may have been practicing numerology since childhood and just never realized it. Does the combination A1 mean anything to you? Sometimes people use that combination to name products, like A1 Steak Sauce, or to describe someone or something top-notch, or alpha. 1 is the number associated with the letter A. 2 is usually the number associated with B, and 3 is the number associated with the letter C, or so on and so forth. But I bet you knew that already. Here's another example— when the date 07/07/2007 came around, there were record numbers of people who choose to get married on that date. Some thought 7/7/7 was a really cool combination of numbers, others decided it was a lucky number to them.

Some people even got married at casinos or did Las Vegas style themed weddings. Have you ever heard of someone trying to get married or have a baby on a certain date, or more importantly, not on a certain date? Numbers, and the energy that they contain, are so very important.

There are a couple of different ways you can go about using numerology to interpret situations. Let's say for example, you have a friend named Bob. Numerology is tricky when using it on friends, it's always better to have a broad sense of understand based on a super specific understanding, but let's just use this as an example.

You could assign a number to each letter, B = 2 (2nd letter of the alphabet), O = 15 (15th letter of the alphabet), B = 2. If you add those together, you get 19. You can use 19, as a whole number, or add the individual digits together to get a single digit number, which is more powerful.  $1 + 9 = 10$ .  $1 + 0 = 1$ . 1 would be the number you use going forward to describe Bob and the energy associated with him.

Or, you could assign A-I 1-9, J-R 1-9, S-Z 1-8, and so forth. Here's a table if that seems confusing:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
A	B	C	D	E	F	G	H	I
J	K	L	M	N	O	P	Q	R
S	T	U	V	W	X	Y	Z

In this case, B would equal 2, O would equal 6, and B would equal 2.  $2 + 6 + 2 = 10$ .  $1 + 0 = 1$ . Same answer, just a different way of doing it. You could also keep double digits and not go to a single digit, but it varies in a case by case scenario.

Have you ever heard someone say "Oh, I'm glad you named that child George, he looks like a George, how did you come up with that name?"— Certain names have meanings, and some of those are related to origin language, meaning over time, if the name appeared in the Bible, or some kind of family story, or the etymology of the words used to create the name.

But names, and letters have numbers that go with them and a certain energy assigned to them. If you've ever thought a name fit a person or didn't, chances are you might have been using first impressions or a pre-conceived notion of the meaning of that name, but you probably didn't even consider what energies numerology brings to the table.

In Bob's case, a number one is typically an alpha, a leader, someone who is knowledgeable and experienced about his particular field. People look to Bob for his opinion. Is this true about the Bobs that you may have come in contact with?

So, you see, you really can apply numerology to any scenario, person, place, or thing, but for the purposes of this report I'm going to let you know what to expect for the weeks of this month and this year so that you can live your entire life to the fullest.

Let's start by looking at the year of 2017.

The Year 2017

The number 1

We've already explored the number one a little as it relates to people, like Bob. The number 1 is one of the most powerful numbers. It is the beginning, the start, the alpha. One can symbolize a great many things but typically when applied to time, it's a new start. One is the number of inventors, creators, and leaders. Indira Gandhi, Martin Luther, Orville Wright, and Princess Diana were all number 1's.

Martin Luther revolutionized the church, Orville Wright helped revolutionize the art of flying, and Gandhi and Princess Diana were notable leaders as well. You can see how they all could be number ones. It's a number of change and inspiration. Number ones lead revolutions and movements.

One is a sign that it's going to be a magnificent year, and may be filled with a new start or a change of some sort. This change may be outward in the sense of a new car, new home, or new job- but likely this is a change from within. The way that you see the world around you will morph into a different way of thinking and dreaming.

As it relates to Lenormand Cards, the Lenormand Card for the number 1 is the Rider or Horseman. He is the bringer of news, often on horseback. Back in the olden times, when you saw or heard a horse galloping your way you knew that something significant had happened and people were sending you important news of a big event.

This big news, combined with the change and movement from number 1 means that gigantic things are headed your way. To recap, you should be the change, act like a number one, and be revolutionary to fight for what you believe in— and gigantic things will head your way.

The Month of October

Or  $1 + 0 = 1$

The Number 1 -

The number one, as we've mentioned, is so important in our culture. It could have divine reference and be used to depict our Lord or God, depending on what religion we follow. It may symbolize the President, Governor, Mayor, or leader of a country or city. It may be a Principal, teacher, or educator, or some kind of boss. It may symbolize the head of a family, tribe, or community.

In sports, number 1 is the very best and the team leader, or player that all other players strive to emulate. "One" can mean first, or best, or a combination of both. The alpha, the beginning. Surely, someone who is number one either has the ability to see the future, or is smart enough to have an idea that something is about to happen.

In this case, number one likely refers to the fact that the news will directly affect the person who is number one in your life, meaning yourself. It could also mean that the news will revolve around something very important to you. It might signify something that is happening quickly, or prominently in your life. The month of October carries the number one, therefore making it a very important month for new beginnings or for you to accomplish some very important and pressing things.

Typically, the number one signifies one minute, one day, one week, one month, or even one year. It could even be trying to represent the time of 1:00PM. 1 can also be our expression number. Have you ever heard of your expression number? This is a number that is derived from the letters of our full birth name, and reveals the talents, abilities and shortcomings you hold in this lifetime.

October Week One 10/01/2017 – 10/07/2017

Numerology Equation

$$10/01/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 0 + 1 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 12 \ (1+2) = 3$$

$$10/02/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 0 + 2 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 13 \ (1+3) = 4$$

$$10/03/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 0 + 3 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 14 \ (1+4) = 5$$

$$10/04/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 0 + 4 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 15 \ (1+5) = 6$$

$$10/05/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 0 + 5 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 16 \ (1+6) = 7$$

$$10/06/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 0 + 6 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 17 \ (1+7) = 8$$

$$10/07/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 0 + 7 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 18 \ (1+8) = 9$$

$$\text{Days Numerology Total} = 3 + 4 + 5 + 6 + 7 + 8 + 9 = 42. \ 4 + 2 = 8$$

The Number 8

People with the lucky number 8 have strong intuition and insight, and they have the keen ability to explore things uncovered or undiscovered, like undiscovered talents or abilities that may be lying within. The number eight is seen as super lucky by many cultures, the Chinese culture being one in particular. The Chinese will go out of their way to include number 8's in their name numerology, home and business addresses, telephone numbers, and web addresses.

Some addresses including the number 8 are so sought after that millions of dollars are paid just to get the maximum number of 8's possible. Part of this is because the number 8 is pronounced "Ba", and is very close to the word "Fa", for wealth and fortune. As an example of the Chinese's amazing devotion to the number 8 — the Olympic games hosted in Beijing commenced at exactly 8 o'clock and 8 minutes on the 8th day of the 8th month in 2008.

As it refers to Lenormand cards, the card for 8 contains the coffin symbol. This pairing makes sense, as the 8 is the closest number to the infinity symbol, which is often pictured as a sideways 8. Infinite and eternal, these numbers can be closely related when thought of in that sense. Ideas that are not acted upon are ultimately laid to infinite rest.

As it applies to a period of time, 8 signifies that this is a month where if you do not act upon your ideas, hopes, wishes, and dreams — they will ultimately be laid to infinite rest. This is your time, and you have luck on your side, but you need to act quickly because the coffin is working against you.

Combined with 2017, which is a magnificent year of change and revolution, October and its number 8 could bring that year of change along by forcing you to do things you were afraid to do in the past. You may try things you've always wanted to try, like sky-diving, you may take that business offer that terrified you in the past. You might go back to school or try out another career path. You may have something you want to submit to a contest or audition for something you were always hesitant about in the past.

Action Items for the Week

This week absolutely has to be a week of setting goals and beginning to work towards them. Eliminate fear and doubt from your mind and go after the things you've truly wanted for some time. There may be obstacles this week that you must go around but do not be afraid to work through them because the odds may be in your favor this week.

It's time to think about and pursue your hopes and desires and get what you've always wanted out of life. If you don't act— you will have 3 more chances this month to enact this change, but they will not be nearly as lucky and fortunate for you as this first week. Act quickly before your luck fades.

Affirmation for the Week

“ I realize that the stars are aligned this week and that I should look for new opportunities knocking at the door. I have the chance this week to set my goals on some of the dreams I have for my future. I will be confident and have limited fear and really make everything I've ever wanted come into reality. This is the week that I make my dreams a priority.” Repeat this affirmation once or twice per day for the rest of this week.

October Week Two 10/08/2017 – 10/14/2017

Numerology Equation

$$10/08/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 0 + 8 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 19 \ (1+9) = 10/1$$

$$10/09/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 0 + 9 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 20 \ (2+0) = 2$$

$$10/10/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 0 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 21 \ (2+1) = 3$$

$$10/11/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 1 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 22 \ (2+2) = 4$$

$$10/12/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 2 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 23 \ (2+3) = 5$$

$$10/13/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 3 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 24 \ (2+4) = 6$$

$$10/14/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 4 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 25 \ (2+5) = 7$$

$$\text{Days Numerology Total} = 1 + 2 + 3 + 4 + 5 + 6 + 7 = 28 \ (2+8) = 10/1$$

The Number 1

For there to be so many ones in October just confirms the importance of the the month for in the year 2017. For this week to be a one, it means that this week is the week that your life should be picking up some momentum. Whatever you do this month needs to start this week and and get into gear. This is the week you should apply for new jobs, enter contests, meet new people, post your desires on social media. Whatever you're going to accomplish this month, will start with the connections and intentions that you build up in this second week.

There were a lot of "firsts" that occurred this week in history. On October 11,1869 Thomas Edison filed for a patent on his first invention. The same day in 1975 "Saturday Night Live" was broadcast for the first time. Then in 1984 American Kathryn D. Sullivan became the first female astronaut to space walk. All of these things in history occurred during the second week in October. You should be able to get that first time accomplishment on the books in your life during this week.

As it relates to Lenormand cards, the card closely related to the number one is the Cavalier, or rider card, which depicts the symbol of a person wearing a riding hat and coat, and riding a horse. Presumably this person is male, but it is left ambiguous by various different illustrations on the card. The card symbolizes news, and can bring up visions of days in the past where elaborately dressed riders delivered important news on horse back.

Have you ever felt that feeling where you know that something is about to happen? You may not be able to explain why you have that hunch, or intuition, but you are certain that something will be happening soon. In the olden days, where news was delivered via messenger or carrier on horse, people would wait by their windows until they were aware of the approaching gallup on rocks and pavement.

Certainly when they heard that noise, they either became excited or dreadful, and rushed to look out the window to see who was coming and what kind of news and tidings they bode. Keep in mind that this image of someone riding the horse is someone in motion, so the news, like any news being worth mentioning, involves something or someone changing.

While it can move forward or backward, generally horses and riders do not run backward, so this change is more often than not positive and optimistic. It may signal a change in career, a pending move, a new baby, or the beginning of a passionate love affair. In a quite literal way, it might mean our legs will walk or run towards the change, or it may be symbolic of us moving in the right direction, quickly.

Action Items for the Week

This week absolutely has to be a week of significant action. You should have set your goals in the beginning of this month and now is the week to get them into full swing. It will be very helpful to get some of those loose ends tied up so that you can focus on the momentum of progress this week.

You do not have to necessarily complete some of those pending tasks, there is after all only a certain amount of hours in each day, but they definitely have to be started or at least addressed. This week should be a very important and busy week for you but be sure to make some time for someone you have been putting off, call them or send them a message and let them know you are thinking of them.

If you are having trouble trying to figure out where to begin with some of the work you have tasked yourself with, at least make an outline, or complete the next step of that project and move along. All of the amazing things that will happen this month are put into action in this week, so it's time to get the ball rolling!

Affirmation for the Week

“I recognize the power in this number one week, in this month of completion, in this year of change. I know that I need to work very hard with limited distractions this week and at least address every problem or opportunity that has presented itself. My future success for the entire month, and perhaps even the entire rest of the year, will depend upon my actions this week. I am ready, I am prepared, and I will knock out these items on my to do list to the absolute best of my ability.” Repeat this affirmation once or twice per day for the rest of this week.

October Week Three 10/15/2017 – 10/21/2017

Numerology Equation

$$10/15/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 5 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 17 \ (1+7) = 8$$

$$10/16/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 6 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 18 \ (1+8) = 9$$

$$10/17/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 7 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 19 \ (1+9) = 10/1$$

$$10/18/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 8 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 20 \ (2+0) = 2$$

$$10/19/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 1 + 9 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 21 \ (2+1) = 3$$

$$10/20/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 2 + 0 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 13 \ (1+3) = 4$$

$$10/21/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 2 + 1 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 14 \ (1+4) = 5$$

$$\text{Days Numerology Total} = 8 + 9 + 1 + 2 + 3 + 4 + 5 = 32 \ (3+2) = 5$$

The Number 5

Five is the number of days in a standard work week. It's the number of fingers on hands and feet. Without even one toe, we have trouble walking. Without even one finger, we have trouble using our hands. Our roots are important and our feet are the foundation upon which our body stands and grows tall. Protect them. Five may indicate 5:00, Friday, or the letter E. In Chinese culture, the number 5 represents the elements: water, fire, metal, earth, and wood.

For this week to be a 5, it means that this week also is elemental and vital to your success this month and year. While last week was a week for you to reach out and get things started, or re-started, this week is all about you continuing on with what you're working on in perfect balance. Do not let your home fall by the wayside while you work long hours at the office. Don't neglect your husband or wife and children as you meet new people and complete new goals.

This is the week to step back from the intense work you've been doing, check in on the home front, and establish social connections. Have a little bit of fun, but make sure your roots are squarely planted and that your relationships are where they need to be. While there are a lot of things going on with your life at the moment, you need to be sure you do not neglect the people close to you in the loop, for they are your core and vital to your life balance.

As it relates to Lenormand cards, the card closely related to the number five is the tree. The tree is one of the most powerful symbols in our everyday lives. We see trees everywhere. It's a yoga pose, a symbol of life, we even chart our families with trees and their branches. Trees represent earth's circle of life. Without the soil and water from our Earth, they would surely die.

Without them, animals and beings wouldn't have air to breathe. The tree is one of the most important life giving plants in almost every culture. A tree is strong, grows tall, and is rooted into the ground. Trees are also symbolic of ritual, forest, spells, and different types of magic or magick. What a perfect number to correlate with the tree, which makes fire, drinks water, is as strong as metal, and is literally wood that comes from the earth.

A card with an image of a tree indicates that you are beginning to spread your branches. It may symbolize a baby that is about to come and that your family is beginning to grow. It may even symbolize multiple babies, children, or twins. A tree may also indicate that you will begin to branch out in your career and in the professional sense. You may be about to step out of your comfort zone and begin accepting new challenges.

Additionally, a tree could mean that you need to take a look at the life you've built and make sure the roots are sturdy. Do you have a water source that is not the clearest? Have you been true to your faith and yourself? Is your root system strong? Do you have a friend that is untrue?

Tyler Perry is a famous actor and comedian based in Atlanta, Georgia. Growing up, he was raised predominately by southern African-American women, and that's who many of his characters are based upon. His most famous character, Madea, who is played by himself dressed in women's clothing, is a combination of everyone's mother and grandmother.

Madea says that friends and relationships are like trees. Some friends, Madea says, are like leaves. They drink our water and hang out on our branches, but they're gone with the wind. We have thousands of those types of leaves. Some friends are like branches, they're there for the majority of the time but when things get rough and the storms come, they're breaking off.

We have a couple dozen of those. But our true friends, our brothers and sisters, are our roots. They come few and far between, and they'll never leave us no matter what happens until our dying day.

Action Items for the Week

You should check in with your friends and family this week and make sure those relationships are good and supported. Getting some of those goals accomplished could possibly come from the help of a loved one or friend this week. See if they need anything and make sure that you've not been selfish in the relationship. Make sure your relationship roots are firmly planted.

Take a step back from work (while also managing to not let your work fall by the wayside), and have a little fun, reconnect and establish your social connections, and make sure your home and pets and children are taken care of. This week is all about balance, just like the tree. You should try yoga, especially the tree pose, for assistance with your balance this week. Take a little time to gather yourself around this time during the month of October.

Affirmation for the Week

"I will make sure that my life has balance. I will check in with my children, spouse, friends, and other relationships to make sure that everyone feels supported by me, and that I am roots to them and not leaves. I will take a moment for myself to gather my mind and do a little reflecting. This week is all about ensuring that everything is maintained and nothing is forgotten." Repeat this once a day this week.

October Week Four 10/22/2017 – 10/28/2017

Numerology Equation

$$10/22/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 2 + 2 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 15 = (1+5) = 6$$

$$10/23/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 2 + 3 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 16 = (1+6) = 7$$

$$10/24/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 2 + 4 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 17 = (1+7) = 8$$

$$10/25/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 2 + 5 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 18 = (1+8) = 9$$

$$10/26/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 2 + 6 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 19 = (1+9) = 10/1$$

$$10/27/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 2 + 7 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 20 = (2+0) = 2$$

$$10/28/2017 \ 1 + 0 + 2 + 8 + 2 + 0 + 1 + 7 = 21 = (2+1) = 3$$

$$\text{Days Numerology Total} = 6 + 7 + 8 + 9 + 1 + 2 + 3 = 36 \ (3+6) = 9$$

The Number 9

The number 9 can be symbolic of the 9th month, the 9th year, day, or week. It also may refer to the letter I, the 9th letter. It can indicate the 9th hour or 9th minute as well. As children, 9 is proven to be a magical number in schools and summer camps when we learn math. It is number that everyone bragged about learning multiplication tables on their fingers, or with a deck of cards, and 9 always comes through for the mathematical win.

You can multiply 9 by any number, get a result, add that result number's digits together, and the resulting answer is always a 9. It's a favorite number of magicians and tv tricksters to guess what number you're thinking. Do you know what your own personal magic numbers are? Interestingly, in society, we use the number 9 sometimes to refer to multiple chances at life—such as a cat's "9 lives".

Just like a cat gets another chance at life, so does a replanted flower, or re-soiled seed. It's up to you to not waste your chance at another life, a recovery from an illness, a near-death experience, or a new love. Similarly, a "cat-o-9-tails" can be a sign of punishment, or atonement, and perhaps eventually a second chance. To be on "cloud 9" is also a very good thing in the American culture.

9 is considered a good number in Chinese culture because it sounds similar to the word for "long lasting." In Greek culture, there are 9 Muses who are responsible for bringing all of the good things into the world, like art, dance, and poetry. You should take advantage of it as the flower takes advantage of the soil and the water we bring them in order to grow as tall and as beautiful as possible.

For this week to be a 9, it means that you have a fresh start. Last week, you checked in with various social friends and family members who you may have allowed to fall by the wayside. Hopefully they were supportive of your desire to reconnect with them, and your efforts to maintain balance are successful.

They may not be; however, they may have decided that you're more like leaves and less like roots on their tree. Now is the time for a fresh start. You can move on from friends, co-workers, and acquaintances who do not appreciate you, and focus more of and all of your energies upon people who love and want you to do well, and who desire you in their life.

As it relates to Lenormand cards, the card closely related to the number nine is the # 9 - The bouquet, or symbol of flowers, may be representative of something new blooming. Paired with flowers, a 9 may refer to a date or time in the spring season, when flowers are known to bloom. Life may be about to change, and you may be getting a fresh start.

It's no coincidence that flowers are presented as gifts for funerals, and also brought to many first dates as a gift for the person wished to enter the new romantic relationship. Flowers are an amazing symbol of rebirth, something is about to grow. Often times flowers are brought when meeting new people, such as the mother of someone you may have started a relationship with, a teacher, or new boss or administrative assistant.

Flowers are sent to the hospital for people who have undergone illness or surgery, as a sign that they will heal quickly and get well soon. Flowers also have the ability to cheer people up. They may give life, in both a practical, and a spiritual way. Flowers come from the ground, and they are given life as soon as the seed is planted. This is a very fragile life, and the flower risks being compromised by storms, rain, bees, birds, bugs, small animals like dogs and cats, or even humans.

They can be stepped on, picked, or allowed to die by feeble gardeners. Just like life, flowers can be gorgeous in full bloom, but very fragile as well. Their beauty can be fleeting. Flowers generally represent a variety of colors, or something that is very colorful and beautiful. They can refer to hair, makeup, beauty, a face-lift, or some kind of spa, hair salon, or beauty salon as well. Other meanings for flowers are gifts, either spiritual or physical, or the gift of grace.

Action Items for the Week

This is your week for getting accustomed. You spent the first week of this month planning, and the second week getting those goals started and moving into the third where you were trying to make sure your life had balance. If you found excess things going on that were unnecessary, you learn to let them go.

Cleansing yourself of the clutter and bad energy allows you to have focus on your goals and your overall well being and happiness. You need to revitalize yourself, just like the flower does when it's watered in the garden each day, or rinsed clean by the rains. Anything that does not bring you happiness or the potential for happiness needs to be unplanted from your life.

Affirmation for the Week

“ I appreciate the opportunity i have been given for focus and direction in my life, and I will not allow it to go to waste. I know that I need for my life to have perfect balance, and I will remove the things and people from my life who do not provide perfect harmony. I know that this will be difficult, but I ask for the beauty and strength of the flower in order to make my life more harmonious and peaceful in the long run. “ Repeat this once per day this week.

CONCLUSION TO REPORT

Well friend,

I hope you have enjoyed your personalized report. The month of October is a powerful one, and I hope that it productive and profitable for you. As specific as I tried to be I also left things a little vague because they are open to your own interpretation. You have your own energy that is going to be applied and your own energy will very much determine the course of the way things progress. Feel free to take the numbers for each day and each week and add in your own initials, birthdays, and lucky numbers to get a report even more specific to you.

Please feel free to contact me if you have any additional questions. I'm always available to you and hopefully you will check back for additional readings in the future and as the months and weeks continue on. You are becoming an amazing numerology student and this is just the beginning of your journey of learning how to create positive energy within your life by understanding the energies around you.
